

ENDING SALE

1917 JUNE 20th

You Win

store the largest stock of Ready-to-ce for the fall and winter trade. Our ust be completed before that time.

and to Make Room for the Carpenters Millinery, Rain Coats, Waists GO, AND GO QUICKLY

do have a sale we go all the way—no piking—no jockeying—but a sale that is a real sale and one that you can depend upon. Space will not permit a full description of all the wonderful bargains we have arranged for you, nor a mere printed word could not describe the magnificent splendor of the suits, coats, dresses, skirts and millinery of the MOLLRING Store. You will have to come in and see these bargains for yourself—then you will appreciate what we are trying to do. THE CARPENTERS SAY: "GET OUT" AND THE ONLY WAY WE KNOW OF IS TO SELL THE GOODS—THEY CAN'T BE MOVED INTO THE STREET NOR STORED IN THE BASEMENT—THEY MUST BE SOLD AND SOLD QUICKLY; AND TO DO THIS WE MUST SLAUGHTER THIS WONDERFUL STOCK OF BEAUTIFUL GARMENTS RIGHT IN THE MIDST OF THE SEASON. BUT OUR LOSS IS YOUR GAIN—COME IN AND SHARE IN THE FEAST.

MOLLRING

of Quality"

ular attention to our Remnant table. There are won-gains here.

Suits

Every Suit in the Store will have a RED TICKET marked at a greatly reduced price. Look for it and sell to yourself

Millinery

Red Ticket prices

Sport Suits

These at Red Ticket prices too

FINE FIGURED and
FLOWERED SWISSES
Worth 35c at

25c

PRINTED FLAXONS
Worth 25c at

18c

Linen-Percakes, worth
16c at

12c

LORRAINE TISSUES
Worth 30c at 23c

The
RED TAGS
Mean
Reduced
Prices

HEMINGFORD DEP'T.

Russell Melick returned Tuesday from a couple of months' visit with his parents, in Missouri.

Mrs. McClung was a westbound passenger from here Saturday going over to Gordon for a few days' visit with her brother.

Grove Fosket was on the sick list a few days during the week.

Miss Frances Olds came up from Hastings the latter part of last week to spend part of last week at home.

Miss Elsie Greene returned from Alliance Sunday where she had been visiting with friends for a week.

Mrs. John Curran and children of Alliance came Tuesday and remained over Decoration day with relatives.

T. Colvin and granddaughter Miss Nellie Carter returned from a month visit with friends in Washington and Oregon.

Mrs. Broshar and daughter Mrs. Safford came over from Scottsbluff Tuesday to be present at the Decoration day exercises.

Miss O'Neil was called to Chadron Friday on account of the serious illness of her grandmother.

Miss Pauline Dowd enjoyed an over-Sunday visit with her sister who had just closed a term of school at Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell are enjoying a visit with a daughter who arrived the latter part of the week.

Dr. Elkner spent a few hours here Sunday. The doctor is a very busy man these days and was obliged to cut his visit short.

Mrs. Octava Kinsley was called here Thursday on account of the illness of her brother Brown Church. On arriving she found him so much improved that she returned to her home at Omaha Friday.

E. L. Light, who spent several days here this week fixing up the elevator for the Central Graneries Company, took 44 for Morrill, Tuesday.

Mr. Mowrey, carpenter for the Graneries Co., is here getting ready for the erection of the company's coal sheds.

The C. A. Phillips Co., playing under canvas, played to a big crowd here Monday night. This is a good clean company and well deserving of good patronage any place.

Bert Coburg met with quite an experience last Thursday during the electrical storm. The horse he was riding was knocked down by lightning and Bert was rendered unconscious. How long he remained in that condition he is unable to say as he was alone at the time. But Bert feels that it was certainly his lucky day.

H. L. Peterson, formerly of this place but for the last couple of years a resident of Omaha, arrived here last Thursday and took a position as salesman in the Wiltsey store. Mr. Peterson's friends are pleased to have him with them again, the wife and little daughter will be here in a few days.

Frank Connors an old-timer here was renewing old acquaintances the first of the week.

John Sampy was in town from Sioux county the fore part of the week.

This community was startled beyond expression Monday afternoon when the word that Eddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gasseling, had been killed by lightning. It seems that Mr. Gasseling and the boys were at work on one of their farms and seeing the storm was getting pretty bad took refuge in the barn. It seems that the storm caught them before they reached the building and they opened the large doors and drove the teams into the barn to unhitch them, when one of the boys remarked that it would be safer from the lightning if the doors were closed. Eddie went to close the door just as the lightning struck. All were rendered unconscious. As soon as possible or as soon as any of them were able to realize what had happened they found John and Eddie both in a serious condition. After a few moments working with them John showed signs of recovery, but Eddie never recovered. Johnnie is still in a serious condition. They were immediately taken to their home and medical aid summoned but to no avail. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Wednesday from the Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Father Keyser. Interment in the local cemetery. To the bereaved ones we extend our most sincere sympathies in this their hour of sorrow.

STOCK SALE—The Ralph Hopkins Public Auction of near Dunlap, Nebraska, is billed for Wednesday, June 6th, 1917, rain or shine. Consisting of 135 head of cattle and 35 head of horses, some farm machinery. CALVIN J. WILBY, Clerk. 26-11-7963

Twenty-four full quarts fancy strawberries, express prepaid, $3.20. Wickham Berry Farm, Salem, Nebr. 26-11-8322